Reflecting on our Memories

Some day in June, we'll all look back
 Reflect upon the past
 And realize then, with thoughtfulness
 It left us much too fast.

Some people here will soon be gone
 And bid the school adieu
 While others stay to make the room
 To welcome students new.

Though some of you may disagree
 Our memories wouldn't lie
 The best years ever spent were at
 The Agawam Junior High.

8th Grade Principal's Award Carolyn Clini

The Principal's Award is presented in June to the eighth grade student who is deemed by the faculty to have been the most outstanding student during the past two years at Agawam Junior High. The faculty bases its decision on the fact that the student is well-liked by both students and staff and has demonstrated the following:

- good conduct
- good school spirit
- good academic record
- helpfulness and cooperation
- involvement in school activities
- contribution to school and community
- trustworthiness, reliability and promptness
- respectful attitude toward people and property

This year's award winner is Carolyn Clini. Carolyn is well-mannered in school and has been on the honor roll every term since fifth grade.

Not only is Carolyn very active in the Non-Users' Club at the Junior High, but for two years she has been elected by fellow club members to serve as one of four students on an advisory panel. As a member of the Non-Users' Club, she also participated in a six-day peer counselor training program, "Jump Rope for Heart," and the annual Granger School Field Day.

Carolyn's desire to help others certainly extends to the community, where she has volunteered to help the children's librarian at the Agawam Library, assisted younger flute students at Summer Band, been involved in Girl Scouting, and volunteered time to teach English to Russian immigrants.

A talented artist, Carolyn draws and paints. She has showcased her artwork at an exhibit at MacDuffie School, as well as the Agawam Library and the Office of the Superintendent of Schools. She received an Outstanding Art Student Award in grade seven, and received The United States National Art Award this year.

Carolyn loves to write. She has worked on a literary magazine at the Junior High and most recently has submitted poetry to the Scholastic Writing Award Committee of Scope Magazine. One of her poems has already been published in the National Library of Poetry. She is also the winner of this year's Yearbook Poetry Contest.

Carolyn demonstrates her outstanding leadership ability as drum major of the Junior High Band. She is an excellent flute player. In grade seven, she was named to the Women Band Directors' National Honor Band, a group that represented thirty-eight states. As an eighth grader, she was selected by audition to perform in the Mass. Music Educators' Western District Band. Nearly one-hundred flute students auditioned for district from over forty-five cities and towns. Carolyn takes private flute lessons and is very disciplined in her musical studies. She is often called upon as a flute soloist, at school, church and in the community.

Carolyn is admired and respected by the students and faculty. She has a tremendous amount of school spirit. She demonstrates maturity and leadership by setting an example for others to follow. For these reasons, she is an excellent selection for this year's Principal's Award. CONGRATULATIONS CAROLYN!

The Yearbook Sales Committee was responsible for developing new and exciting ideas to promote the sale of yearbooks. The committee wrote, produced, acted in and taped a promotional video, entitled The 60th Reunion of the Class of 1994. They also planned a contest to give away gift certificates towards the purchase of a yearbook through a daily drawing using locker numbers. The prize money was donated by the PTO.
